

Dreams are like stars, you may never touch them, but if you follow them they will lead you to your destiny.

Code of Ethics

I Will...

- Maintain a professional relationship with my clients at all times.
- Always keep my clients' interests above those of my own.
- Maintain, guard and guarantee my clients' confidentiality.
- Not offer advice, counseling, or psychotherapy to any client in my duties as a coach.
- Never do harm to any client.
- Develop lasting relationships built on a foundation of honesty, integrity and respect with every client I serve.
- Commit all of my professional experience, energy and focus to helping every client I serve.
- Expect success from every client I serve, and I will not be limited in my expectations by my clients' past performances.
- Encourage my clients to believe in themselves, set realistic goals, take appropriate actions and celebrate success.
- Provide my clients with a safe and nurturing coaching experience which will allow them to be themselves without fear of judgment, criticism or failure.
- Remain committed to professional excellence in all that I do and all I provide.
